George Connolly, a son of George and Mary (-----) [Blimas]
Connolly, was born in Lancaster County VA May 20, 1761 and died in Lewis County VA (WV) May 10, 1838. He married Sallie Morris in Richmond, VA November 2, 1789. Sallie, a daughter of William and Mary Morris, was born in Lancaster County in 1769 and died in Kanawha County in March 1838.

According to his Revolutionary Pension Claim S16734, he enlisted for three years in April 1779 at Fredricksburg, VA, under Captain Lovely. He was marched to Richmond joined the 4th Regiment under Colonel William Davis. He was wounded in April 1781 at Petersburg VA. The British captured him and about nineteen others and they were put aboard a British ship. The ball was removed from his leg by the ship's surgeon, and he was sent to a New York hospital.

After recovering, he was contained in prison with about three hundred others. The prisoners were set at liberty, without a discharge, when General Clinton evacuated the town. George had spent seven months in the hospital and in prison. He returned to VA and settled in Richmond, where he served as militia captain for ten years. He applied for a Revolutionary War Pension in Northumberland County, VA and a pension of $80.00 per year was granted in August 1834.

On November 2, 1789, he married Sally Morris. The births of five of George and Sally's are recorded Richmond County VA.

In May 1821, he bought additional 125 acres on Polk Creek. (Deed Book 255).

In February 1822, George and Sally sold all their land to their son. Patrick Connolly (Deed Book B, page 282), and they moved to northern Kanawha (now Calhoun) County, where they appeared in the 1830 Kanawha County census.
